

The complete course
ebook edition

By Stuart Bahn
www.stuartbahn.com

Contents

Introduction	6
The course structure	7
How to use this course.....	9
Unit 1 Getting started	10
Why teach guitar?	11
Preparation and decision making.....	11
Am I good enough?	11
Practicalities	12
Your teaching space.....	12
Equipment	13
What days and times can I teach in?.....	15
One-on-one or group tuition?	16
How long should my lessons be and how often?	17
Do I teach electric, acoustic or classical?	17
How much to charge.....	18
Marketing	19
Website.....	19
What if you really have no idea how to build a website?	21
Choosing your domain name.....	22
Google business listings.....	22
Other directories	23
Social Media	23
Pay per click advertising.....	24
Non-web related promotion	24
Dealing with enquiries	26
Scenario 1: They have emailed you and included their phone number	26
Scenario 2: They contact you by phone	27
Scenario 3: They have emailed you and have not included their phone number	27
The call itself.....	28
Follow up	29
Asking your advice	29
Unit 2 Teaching material	30
Introduction to teaching material	31
Why bother preparing teaching material?.....	32
How to present your material.....	33
Digital or physical?	33
Handwritten or word-processed material?.....	34
Spelling and grammar	35
Keeping your material organised.....	35

Sourcing material.....	36
Books.....	36
Guitar magazines	36
NOT other teachers	37
The internet	37
The last place you can get material from is YOU!	37
A note on terminology.....	38
Chords – open chords	38
Chords – bar / moveable chords	39
Chord-based repertoire	40
Writing your own chord charts	43
Do you simplify the chords	44
Do you transcribe the guitar part only?.....	44
What if the song has no guitar part.....	45
Bass notes.....	45
Riff-based and rock-based repertoire	46
Blues	47
Major blues	48
Minor blues	48
Jazz blues.....	49
Blues backing tracks.....	49
Jazz Repertoire.....	49
Unit 3 Scales, arpeggios and licks	51
Scales, arpeggios and licks	52
Teaching scales	52
Licks	55
Bending strings.....	55
Varying licks	55
Major pentatonic	56
The other scales	56
Sourcing licks	57
Do I need licks for every scale there is?.....	57
Modes of the major scales.....	57
Jazz licks	58
Arpeggios	58
Solos	60
What solos to teach?	61
Minor and major pentatonics	61
Well known pentatonic solos	62
Seven note scale-based solos.....	62
Students choosing solos.....	63
Balancing solos with theory	64
Jazz solos.....	64
Unit 4 Theory and its application	66

When to cover theory?	67
What to teach.....	67
The major scale	68
Harmonise the major scale into triads	68
Harmonise major scale into sevenths.....	71
Variations of triads and sevenths (sus, 6, add9)	71
Modes of the major scale	72
Extended chords (9, 11, 13)	74
Altered chords	75
The natural minor scale and renaming of chord numbers	75
The harmonic minor scale chords	76
Phrygian dominant.....	77
Melodic minor and symmetrical scales.....	78

Unit 5 Technique 80

Fundamentals.....	81
Striking a balance	82
Technique basics – classical	82
Technique basics – popular music	83
Left hand technique	83
Chord changes	84
Bar chords	85
Holding a pick	86
Strumming	87
Arpeggiating chords.....	87
Alternate picking	87
String bending	89
Vibrato	89
Slides.....	90
Tapping.....	91
Economy picking	93
Sweep picking	93
Hybrid picking.....	94
Harmonics	95
Classical and finger picking	96

Unit 6 Rhythm, aural skills, intervals in performance, additional theory 98

Tablature & notation	99
Rhythm	99
Straight and swing	100
Further rhythm reading	100
Time signatures	101
Additional theory and skills	102
Intervals and aural skills	102

Chord progressions	104
Scales	104
Compositions	104
Using intervals in performance	104
Thirds	105
Sixths	105
Octaves	106
Tenths	107
Fourths	107
Fifths and sevenths	107
Chromaticism	108
Superimposing of scales and arpeggios	109

Unit 7 Delivering lessons, case studies, teaching style, 71 tips	110
Delivering lessons	111
Student 1	111
Student 2	116
Student 3	121
Teaching style	125
General advice and tips	126
Conclusion	137